

CONTACT: Marissa Russo, Director of Marketing
412.422.9900 Ext. 219
mrusso@buncher.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MAY 22 2024

GREGG BROUJOS VICE PRESIDENT OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA SIOR CHAPTER

PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA – The Buncher Company and Buncher Realty Services is pleased to recognize Gregg Broujos for being appointed to the position of Vice President for the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (“SIOR”) Western Pennsylvania/West Virginia chapter. SIOR Global Past President, Patrick Sentner from Colliers | Pittsburgh is quoted saying, “Gregg is one of my favorite people in our industry. To say that I am thrilled to have Gregg as a part of SIOR would be an understatement. I am so excited that he will be serving as Vice President of the Western Pennsylvania/West Virginia Chapter!”

With 37 years in the commercial real estate industry, Gregg continues to dedicate time and effort not only to the clients he serves but those professionals entering the business. From providing corporate real estate strategy to assisting in the acquisitions and vision of The Buncher Company, Gregg’s name and ideas are rooted into the Pittsburgh commercial real estate community.

On the Executive Committee, Gregg brings his wealth of knowledge and expertise of the industry assisting in the overall vision and strategic planning of the national organization. Founder and President of Totum Realty Advisors, Kevin Riley states “Gregg brings a fresh perspective to the organization that will allow us to grow the impact and thought leadership that our chapter is having on the local CRE landscape.” The SIOR community continues to be a standard of excellence for those in the real estate industry, with the nationally recognized organization symbolizing the highest level of knowledge, production and ethical consideration to their clients.

###